

Harris' and Coleman's Class

Grammar Quiz

Misplaced Modifiers

Recognizing Misplaced Modifiers. Underline each misplaced modifier. If a sentence is correct, write correct.

EXAMPLE: The baby crawled on the floor with blue overalls.

1. The messenger spoke to the receptionist who delivered the package. _____
2. The golfer won the trophy wearing green golf shoes. _____
3. Our desire grew smaller to win the prize. _____
4. Reading the menu, Hugh decided to have steak again. _____

Correcting Sentences With Double Negatives. Correct the double negative by rewriting the sentence correctly.

1. We hadn't never realized that Theodore wrote so well.
2. I can't never remember that incident.
3. Ann hasn't said nothing about her new job.
4. This ice cream isn't sold nowhere else.
5. There isn't room nowhere for this table.